YES!! I want to join the Point of Order Parliamentary Law Unit

A local study group of the National Association of Parliamentarians (NAP)

About Us:

The Point of Order Parliamentary Law Unit is a local study group of the National Association of Parliamentarians (NAP) and the Washington State Association of Parliamentarians (WSAP). This West Seattle unit consists of members with a variety of interests and experience.

Would you like to learn more about holding effective meetings, serving as an officer, improving your group's bylaws, running elections, or other areas of parliamentary procedure? If so, visit us at one of our meetings and consider joining our group.

Meetings: Regular meetings are held the fourth Saturday of the month August through May from 11:15 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in West Seattle. Meeting locations vary – see schedule on our website: www.pointoforder.org.

Membership classifications:

- P – Provisional, studying to take test for NAP membership*
- M – NAP member
- RP – Registered Parliamentarian
- PRP – Professional Registered Parliamentarian
- * www.parliamentarians.org/application.php

Dues: Annual dues are $10 and membership is open to any NAP member or anyone preparing for NAP membership.

New members joining on or after August 1, shall be eligible to pay half-year unit dues; renewable January 1 of the following year.
